Collect: God our redeemer, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his continual presence in us he may raise us to eternal joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Acts 17:22-31

Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, 'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him - though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said, "For we too are his offspring." Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

Gospel: John 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. 'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.'

Post Communion: God our Father, whose Son Jesus Christ gives the water of eternal life: may we thirst for you, the spring of life and source of goodness, through him who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Readings for 10am Choral Eucharist, Sunday 28 May: Acts 1:6-14; John 17:1-11

Cathedral Community for your prayers

For the sick: Mona Harrison, Trevor Blackburn, Joyce Slate, David Howell, Betty Richardson

The departed: Hugh Stone, Steve Sherwin, Taka Aki Tomita, Brian Copp

A note from Ian Morter, Victoria Thurtell and John Searle: A huge thank you for the farewell and kindness shown on Sunday 7 May: for the generous cheques, the flowers, cards, farewell wine and canapés after the service. It is a privilege to have been, with all of you, part of this sacred place and its story. We shall miss you" '

God's love; compassion and hope: Time to Reflect – Tuesday 30 May, Tuesday 13 and Tuesday 27 June, 7-9pm Pearson Education Room. We will gather to reflect on our journey together and how God's love, hope and compassion can influence us now and in the future. The Rev Professor Ludlow will provide some input to stimulate our conversation to be facilitated by Canon Mike and Bishop Martin. Each evening will have a theme:

God's Love - 30 May. We will consider how we experience and express God's love in our worship, liturgy and mission. God's Hope – 13 June. We will look at how tradition can help us to experience God's hope through time, past, present and future. God's Compassion – 27 June. We will focus on our relationship: building a community that experiences and expresses God's compassion.
