Collect: Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Wisdom 1:16-2:1, 12-22

The ungodly by their words and deeds summoned death; considering him a friend, they pined away and made a covenant with him, because they are fit to belong to his company. For they reasoned unsoundly, saying to themselves, 'Short and sorrowful is our life, and there is no remedy when a life comes to its end, and no one has been known to return from Hades. 'Let us lie in wait for the righteous man, because he is inconvenient to us and opposes our actions; he reproaches us for sins against the law, and accuses us of sins against our training. He professes to have knowledge of God, and calls himself a child of the Lord. He became to us a reproof of our thoughts; the very sight of him is a burden to us, because his manner of life is unlike that of others, and his ways are strange. We are considered by him as something base, and he avoids our ways as unclean; he calls the last end of the righteous happy, and boasts that God is his father. Let us see if his words are true, and let us test what will happen at the end of his life; for if the righteous man is God's child, he will help him, and will deliver him from the hand of his adversaries. Let us test him with insult and torture, so that we may find out how gentle he is, and make trial of his forbearance. Let us condemn him to a shameful death, for, according to what he says, he will be protected.' Thus they reasoned, but they were led astray, for their wickedness blinded them, and they did not know the secret purposes of God, nor hoped for the wages of holiness, nor discerned the prize for blameless souls;

Gospel: Mark 9:30-37

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Post Communion: Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Pastoral Care Contact. If you wish to contact the cathedral clergy about a pastoral need - for yourself or to alert us to someone else who might be in need – please contact pastoral.care@exeter-cathedral.org.uk
This email address will be read by the Canon Chancellor Chris Palmer, and Priest vicars – Ian Morter, and David Gunn-Johnson. More details of pastoral care and the role of the pastoral care team will be available in due course.

Fellowship outing: Wednesday 10 October. The autumn outing will be to Buckfastleigh, visits to include the Butterfly Farm, the Otter Sanctuary, lunch at Buckfast Abbey, then at 14.15 a return trip on the South Devon Railway from Buckfastleigh to Totnes. A sign up sheet is available on the South Transept noticeboard. Please ask Diane Coombes for further information.

Floor review: A small team from Chapter have been carrying out a floor review this summer, consulting with as many staff and volunteers as possible to look at any improvements we might make to how we manage the space in the Cathedral. On Thursday 11 October there will be an opportunity for both volunteers and staff who have not yet been consulted with to meet with the panel. Please contact Catherine Escott if you would like to be involved; catherine.escott@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

*If people witness any anti social behaviour or an incident on the Cathedral green, please alert Terry Pyle, Health and Safety Fire and Security Manager
