Cathedral

Sunday 16 June Trinity Sunday

A warm welcome to Exeter Cathedral.

Please note that photography and recordings are not permitted during services.

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Gospel

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Can you help, please?: The Revd Colin Baldwin is cycling round all the Cathedrals in the UK to raise money to rebuild the church building at St Stephen's Prittlewell. He is scheduled to arrive in Exeter at 1500 on Sunday 14 July and has asked if anyone can help with accommodation. If you can help, please contact Tina Robbens (tina.robbens@exeter-cathedral.org.uk)

Would you like to be confirmed? Calling adults or young people in Year 6 and above who have not been confirmed and would like to consider this, please contact Canon Chris Palmer (chris.palmer@exeter-cathedral.org.uk) for a conversation by Sunday 7 July. We will be preparing people to be confirmed on Sunday 6 October at 1600 at the cathedral.

Cakes wanted: The Wednesday Kitchen visitors love cakes and are thankful for the goodies on offer. If you can provide a cake, traybake, flapjacks or cookies, weekly, monthly or occasionally, we would be grateful. If you would like to make a batch, we have freezer space. A couple of our bakers leave cakes in tins (labelled) in the Chapter House kitchen and we leave the empty tins in the same place for collection. Please call Penny Harris or contact Helen for further information.
