

Sunday 29 September 2019 St Michael

A warm welcome to Exeter Cathedral. Please note that photography and recordings are not permitted during services.

Collect

Everlasting God, you have ordained and constituted the ministries of angels and mortals in a wonderful order: grant that as your holy angels always serve you in heaven, so, at your command, they may help and defend us on earth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gospel

John 1:47-end

When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said of him, 'Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!' Nathanael asked him, 'Where did you come to know me?' Jesus answered, 'I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.' Nathanael replied, 'Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!' Jesus answered, 'Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.' And he said to him, 'Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.'

Public notice: The Cathedral has applied to the FAC with the following proposal. The removal of the complete existing mechanical “Ellacombe Chimes” system for the striking of the bells in the South tower and elements of mechanical system for the Peter bell in the North tower. This will be replaced with a programmable electronic system providing more scope for the chiming of the bells, cabling and control boxes will be installed to enable the operation. Copies of the specifications and other documents accompanying this application may be examined at the Cathedral office. To make representations about the whole or any part of the proposal, please write to Gwynneth Hermsen gwynneth.hermsen@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

City of London Sinfonia: The Fruit of Silence: Friday 4 October 2019 at 1930 featuring the Choir of Exeter Cathedral. Tickets available from the City of London Sinfonia website www.cityoflondonsinfonia.co.uk

Disappearing Islands: Thursday 10 Oct, 1900. Drinks reception & seminar, in conjunction with Melanesian Mission, with TV producer Alex Leger and climate scientist Ivan Haigh. Important issue and fascinating evening. Tickets £15 from the cathedral website includes a donation to the Melanesian Mission.

Sunday 13 October: There will be a service of Choral Matins at 1000 in the Quire with a service of Holy Communion at the end. At 1600 in the Nave, there will be confirmations by the Bishop of Plymouth.

Informal Lunch for Students. Sunday 13 October, 1200, we extend a warm welcome to students in our city to join us for a simple lunch near the start of term. To sign up – for free – please go to <https://www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/news-events/whats-on/informal-lunch-for-students-in-the-chapter-house/>

Holy Ground: The Spirituality of Video Games. Sunday 13 October, 1900, we invite you on an interactive and imaginative pilgrimage through the depths – in company of Jonah – as that encourages us to meditate, support each other and journey together. Very accessible and ideal for those who know nothing about video games.

Harvest Lunch. Sunday 27 October, 1200noon, a warm meal and a warm welcome – to share food and fellowship as we celebrate the good gifts God gives. Tickets £10 available after services TODAY and in coming weeks. Limited tickets – book NOW to avoid disappointment.
