

Sunday 7 July The Third Sunday after Trinity

A warm welcome to Exeter Cathedral. Please note that photography and recordings are not permitted during services.

Collect

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Gospel

Luke 10:1-11, 16-20

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." 'Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

Readings for 1000 Choral Eucharist next Sunday 14 July: Colossians 1:1-14;
Luke 10:25-37

Farewell to our Year 8 choristers and other musicians for whom this is their last Sunday at the Cathedral. Choristers are moving to new schools; Choral Scholar Emily Harrison is to be a Lay Clerk at Bristol Cathedral, and Organ Scholar Hamish Fraser is to be Organ Scholar of New College, Oxford, where he will study Classics. Thank you to them all for all that they have done to enrich our worship and lift up our hearts. Godspeed!

Revd Elsie Howell will be preaching at 1600 Choral Evensong next Sunday 14 July. This date will mark 50 years of her ordained ministry in the Baptist Church.

Requiem Mass for 650th Anniversary of Bishop John Grandisson's Death

Tuesday 16 July 2019 at 1730; President and Preacher – The Bishop of Exeter. Music – Requiem Mass, Gabriel Fauré sung by the choir of Christchurch Cranbrook, Michigan, USA. This service launches a year of events marking the life of Exeter's longest serving Bishop from 1327-1369. The Pall which covered Grandisson's coffin at his funeral will be on display in the Cathedral and will feature in this service.

Summer Music Series: Pamela, Proms and Pimms: Thursday 18 July at 1900.

Pamela Greener will team up with the University of Exeter Chapel Choir to bring you an evening of 'last night of the proms' tunes and songs over a glass of Pimms. Tickets £8 adults, £4 student, and FREE for Under 18s. Booking available from 01392 285983 (Monday to Friday) and online.

Holy Ground: Sun 21 July, 1900. We are delighted to be joined by preacher and hymn writer John Bell, a member of the Iona Community, who will bring to life our music in the context of a less-formal Eucharist.
